The Fleet Street Heritage Walk
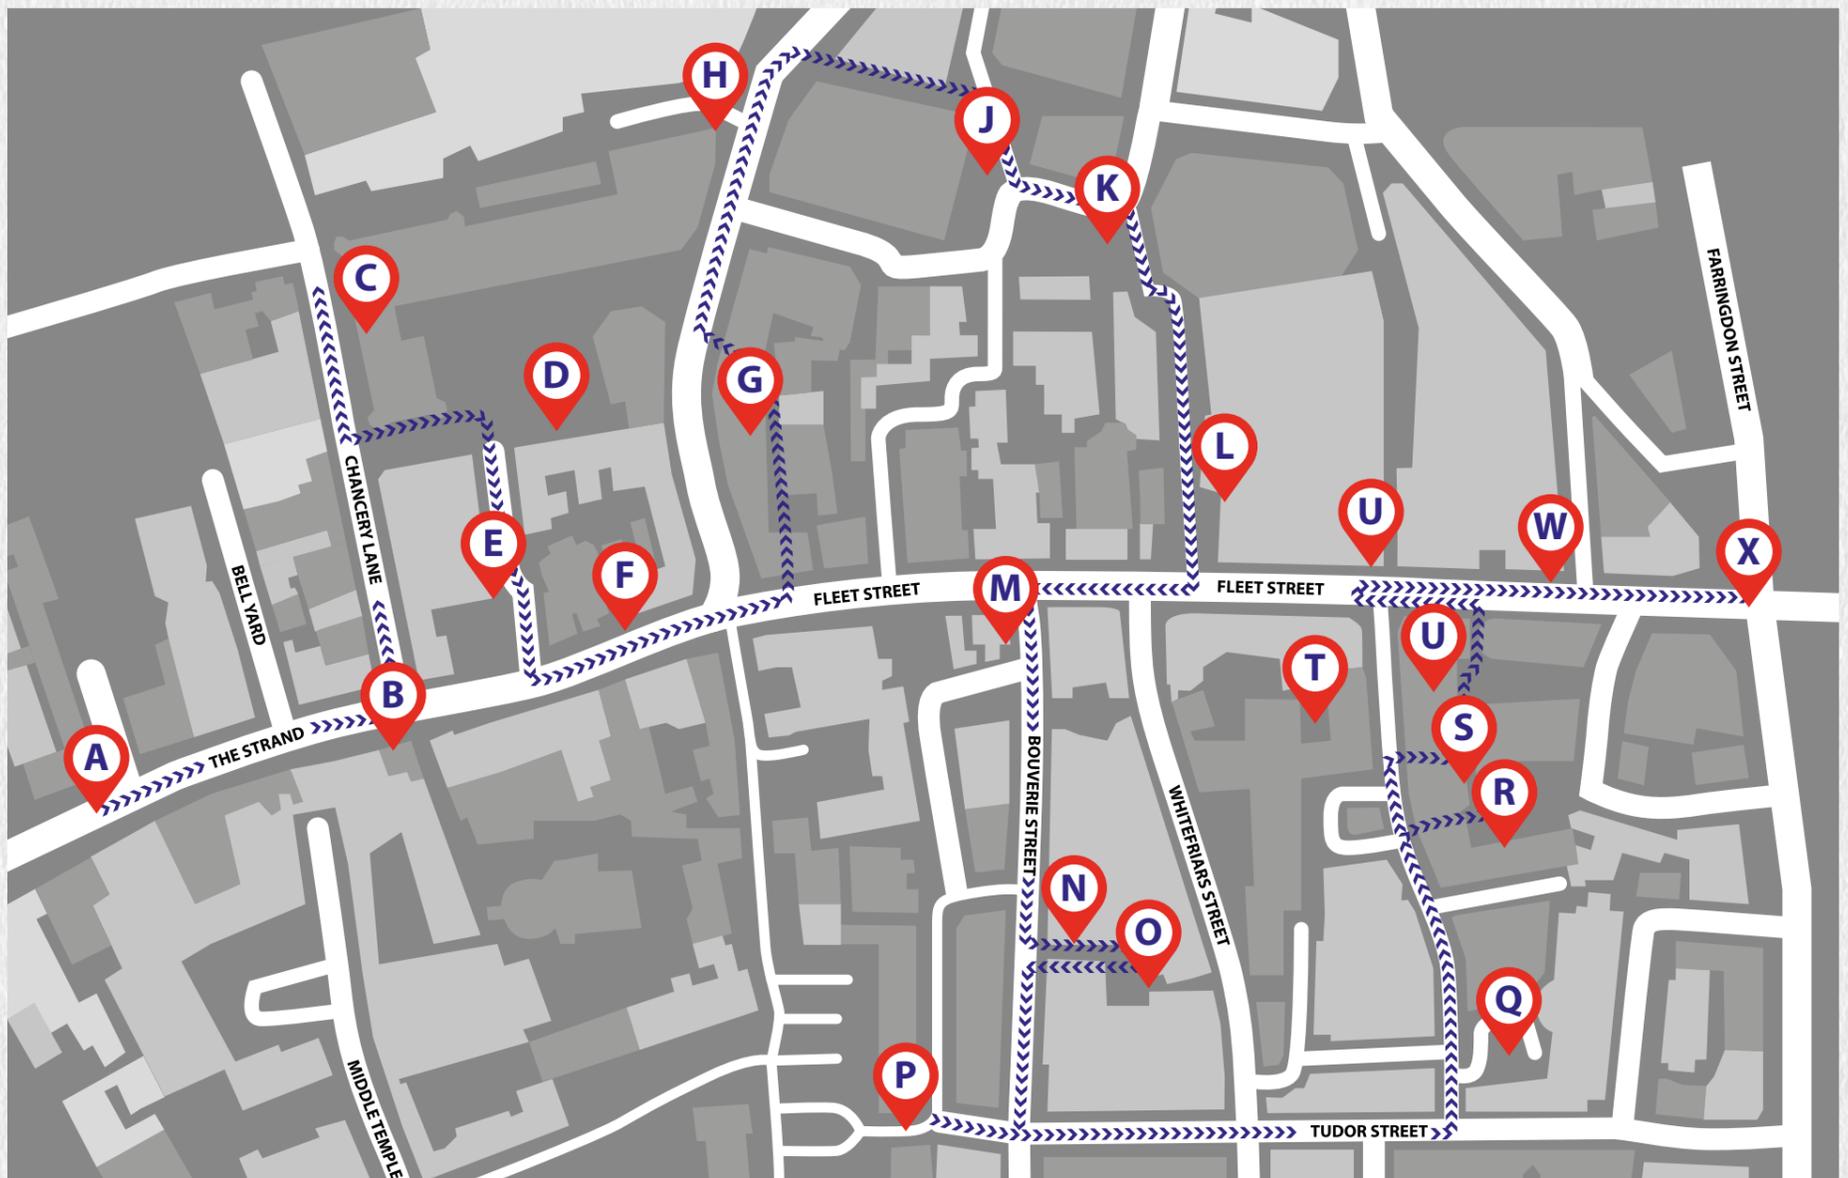

Detailed description on www.fleetstreetheritage.com (M) indicates picture on Monuments page

A	Temple Bar	M	Fleet ST Heritage Sundial
B	Prince Henry's Room	N	Magpie Alley
C	Jubilee Walkway Plaque	O	Whitefriars Crypt (remains)
D	Cliffords Inn	P	Entrance to Inner Temple
E	Cliffords Inn Gatehouse	Q	Dorset Rise
F	St.Dunstans-in-the-West and QE1/Gog&Magog(MM)	R	St Bride's Foundation
G	Crane Court	S	St Brides Church
H	John Wilkes Statue (MM)	T	New Courts/ Police HQ
J	New St Sq/ hanginggarden	U	Reuters Building
K	Dr. Johnson & cat (MM)	V	Peterborough Court
L	Hind Court	W	Express Building
		X	Edgar Wallace plaque

MM - See monuments of Fleet Street

The Jubilee Walkway was the first urban walkway in the world. It is 14 miles long. The City Loop (section 3) comes down Chancery Lane from Holbord, turns left into Fleet Street to St. Pauls, and then goes across the Millennium Bridge, with these pavement markers at frequent intervals. Type "Jubilee Walkway section 3 directions" into yur search engine to get detailed instructions.

The Fleet Street
Heritage Walk
Additional notes

Prepared by: Piers Nicholson, 2023

Source: Original research